章节摘录

Are you a Harry Potter fan? Have you ever dreamed of meeting the stars of the films? What about acting with Daniel Radcliffe in the next Harry Potter film? It may sound too good to be true, but here comes the chance. There is a competition in the UK at the moment. If you're lucky enough to win the competition, you'll have the chance to do all of these things. Last Friday, two young stars from the Harry Potter films flew black balloons from the Millennium Bridge in London. Each balloon has a ticket in it. Anyone who gets the ticket can enter a prize draw. The winner of the draw will visit the set of the next film and play a small role in the film. So if you want to be part of the fun, watch the sky and look for a black balloon. Who knows? With a little of Harry Potter magic, one might make it all the way to China.
