《非常英语系列》

内容概要

《非常英语·阅读训练(高1)》内容简介：阅读理解能力是衡量外语水平的重要标志之一，对绝大多数学生来说，阅读理解，也是他们将来直接运用外语的一个最重要的渠道。各类各级英语考试中，对阅读理解能力的考察，均居各题型之首。而且，完形填空、阅读表；达、阅读填空等题型，其实质也是在考查学生们的阅读理解能力。可以说阅读理解能力的高低，是能否取得高考英语好成绩的关键。纵观近几年各省市高考英语卷中阅读理解题，考生的平均得分率一直较低。并不是因为生词和句子读不懂，而是由于考场紧张，理解较浅，造成答题失分。因此，要想提高阅读理解得分，不仅要打好英语基础，还要掌握考试的出题思路、出题规律以及各类型题的解题技巧，强化训练临场考试经验。

章节摘录

We sisters loved Diwali (排灯节), the festival of lights. We looked forward to the small package father brought for US-the box of sweets. When the sweets were gone, we wanted for another box. And yes, who can forget the crackers? We always felt they weren't enough for US to go to the common playground and burst them with the other kids. Those days were hard, father used to buy us limited crackers within his means. Other kids found it funny that we came to enjoy Diwali with six to ten crackers. A girl laughed "Hey, that's all, and then what are you going to burst tomorrow?" I felt a lump (哽咽) in my throat. I looked at my sister. I could see tears in her eyes. If only father could buy US some more crackers, I could give her a right reply. The next Diwali we burst crackers on our terrace (台阶), just the two of US. We noticed an elderly aunt watch us enjoy. At the end of it, she said, "It was beautiful, you made my day!" She used to look after her sick father day after day with love, her world revolved only from home to office and back. We felt happy that day; we saw her smile! She surely made our day too. Today, years later, Diwali has a different meaning. Today we can afford to buy as many crackers as we wish from our earnings, but we never do.
