《印度时尚 India Chic》

内容概要

A new title in Edition Didier Millet's 'Chic' travel-and-hotel series, India Chic is a guide to the country's most luxurious and alluring hotels, havelis and spas. All the properties featured - whether a modern boutique hotel, a traditional haveli or luxury tent - are chosen for their unique character and chic appeal. Covering each part of the sub-continent in detail, the book offers travellers an engaging, alternative view of India. Regional chapters provide an overview of the area's history, latest developments and attractions. The properties featured in India Chic are represented by an alluring range of images and inspiring narrative. Insights into the design and special features of each establishment, and a 'facts box' help readers decide on the establishments that best appeal to them. Contact details for all establishments provide readers with the most fashionable and talked-about addresses on the island. Highlights: Introductions to each chapter highlighting the best of the country's regions. Stunning pictures showcasing the beauty and charm of each hotel, haveli, tent and spa. Practical information on all establishments. Detailed list of establishments with full contact information.
